The Promise of Acceptance With God
John 6:35-40

John 6:35-40

³⁵ Jesus said to them, “I am the bread of life; he who comes to Me will not hunger, and he who believes in Me will never thirst. ³⁶ But I said to you that you have seen Me, and yet do not believe. ³⁷ All that the Father gives Me will come to Me, and the one who comes to Me I will certainly not cast out. ³⁸ For I have come down from heaven, not to do My own will, but the will of Him who sent Me.

John 6:35-40

³⁹ This is the will of Him who sent Me, that of all that He has given Me I lose nothing, but raise it up on the last day. ⁴⁰ For this is the will of My Father, that everyone who beholds the Son and believes in Him will have eternal life, and I Myself will raise him up on the last day.”

1. The promise of acceptance with God is for those who believe in Jesus.

Jesus said to them, “I am the bread of life; he who comes to Me will not hunger, and he who believes in Me will never thirst. But I said to you that you have seen Me, and yet do not believe.” John 6:35-36

2. The assurance of acceptance with God is for those who come to Jesus.

“All that the Father gives Me will come to Me, and the one who comes to Me I will certainly not cast out.” John 6:37

As Jesus went on from there, He saw a man called Matthew, sitting in the tax collector’s booth; and He said to him, “Follow Me!” And he got up and followed Him. Matt. 9:9

3. The permanence of acceptance with God is for those who come to Jesus.

“All that the Father gives Me will come to Me, and the one who comes to Me I will certainly not cast out.” John 6:37

“For this is the will of My Father, that everyone who beholds the Son and believes in Him will have eternal life, and I Myself will raise him up on the last day.” John 6:40
