

A Time for Everything

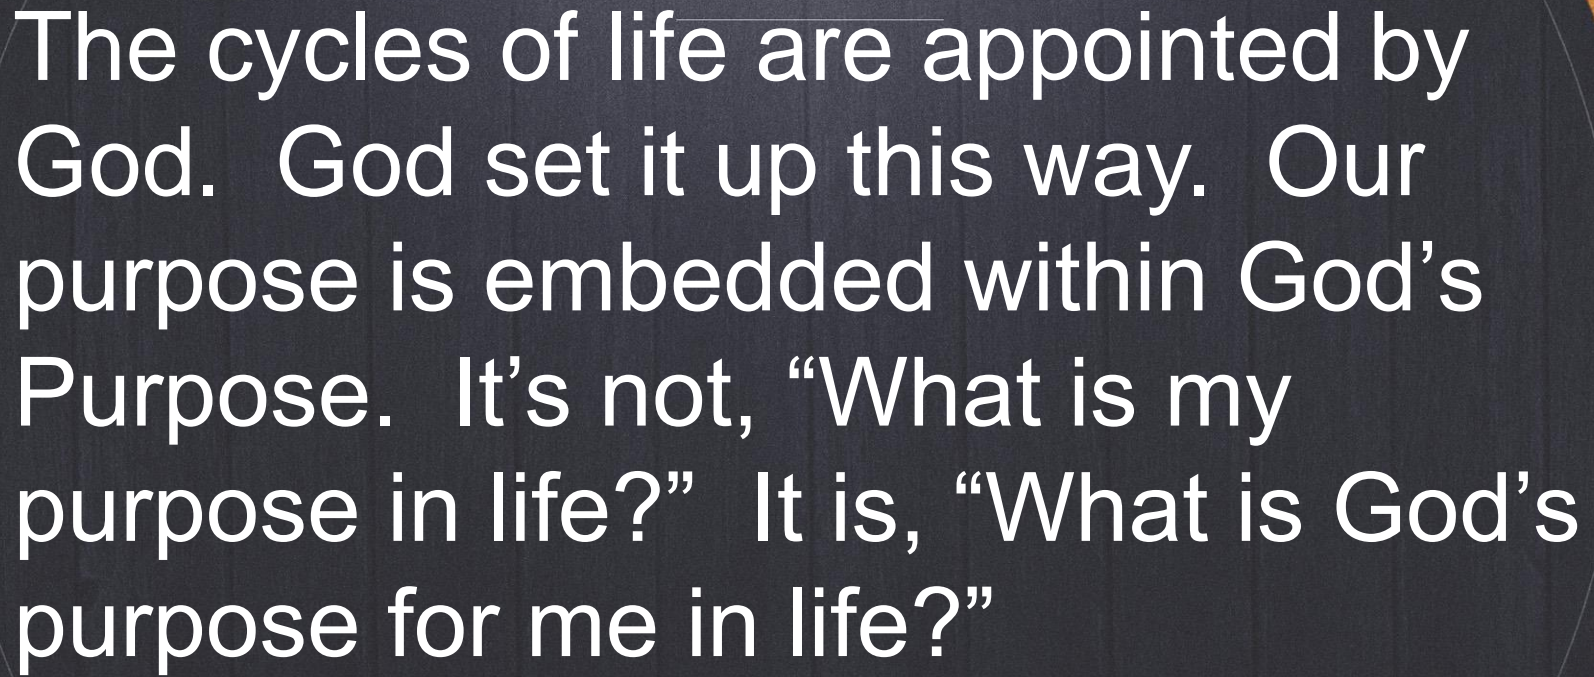

Ecclesiastes 3:1-14

Eccl. 3:1

¹ There is an appointed time for everything. And there is a time for every matter under heaven –

Focal Truth

There is a time (season) in life for everything. We must honor and trust God in every season both good and bad.

The cycles of life are appointed by God. God set it up this way. Our purpose is embedded within God's Purpose. It's not, "What is my purpose in life?" It is, "What is God's purpose for me in life?"

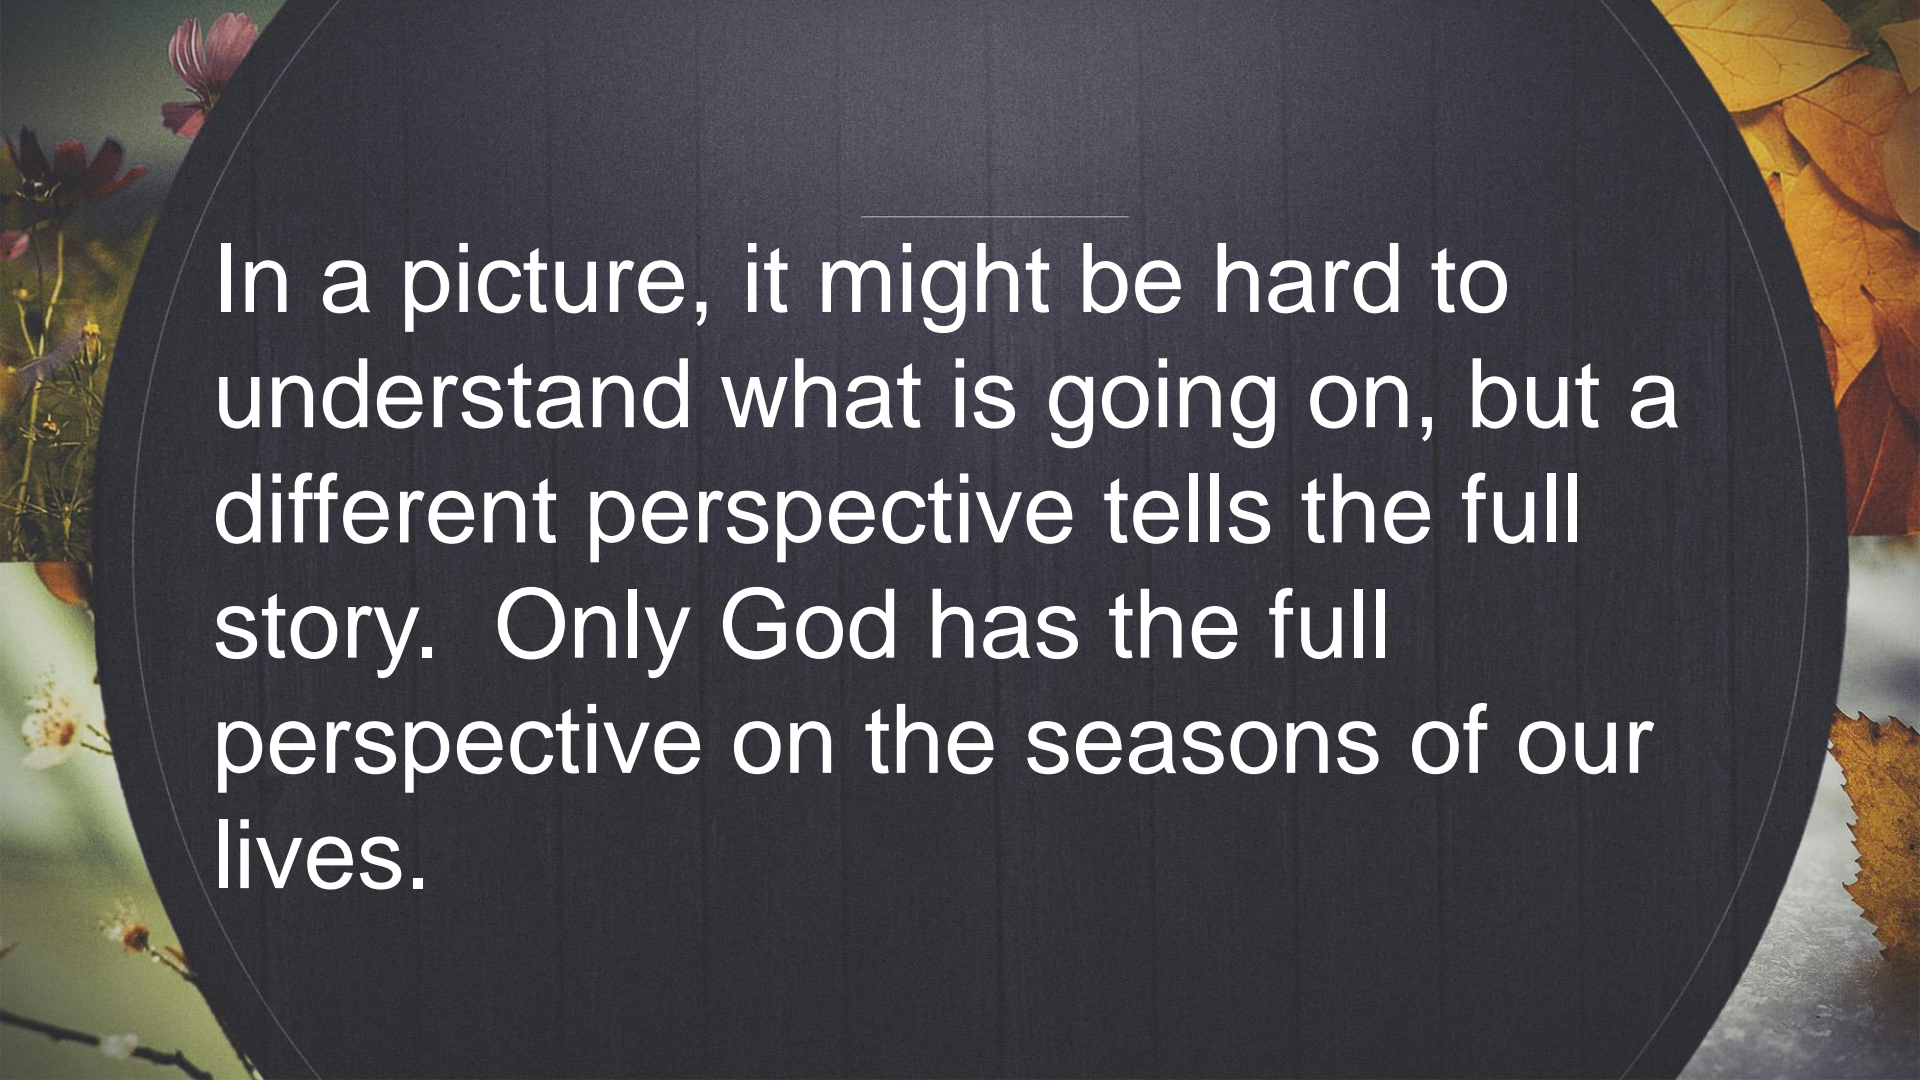

Why are there seasons of life?

The timing of our activities is important.

These seasons, in which certain pursuits are proper, are appointed by God.

In a picture, it might be hard to understand what is going on, but a different perspective tells the full story. Only God has the full perspective on the seasons of our lives.
