Lead Like Jesus Pt. 2

(1 Corinthians 2:9-16)

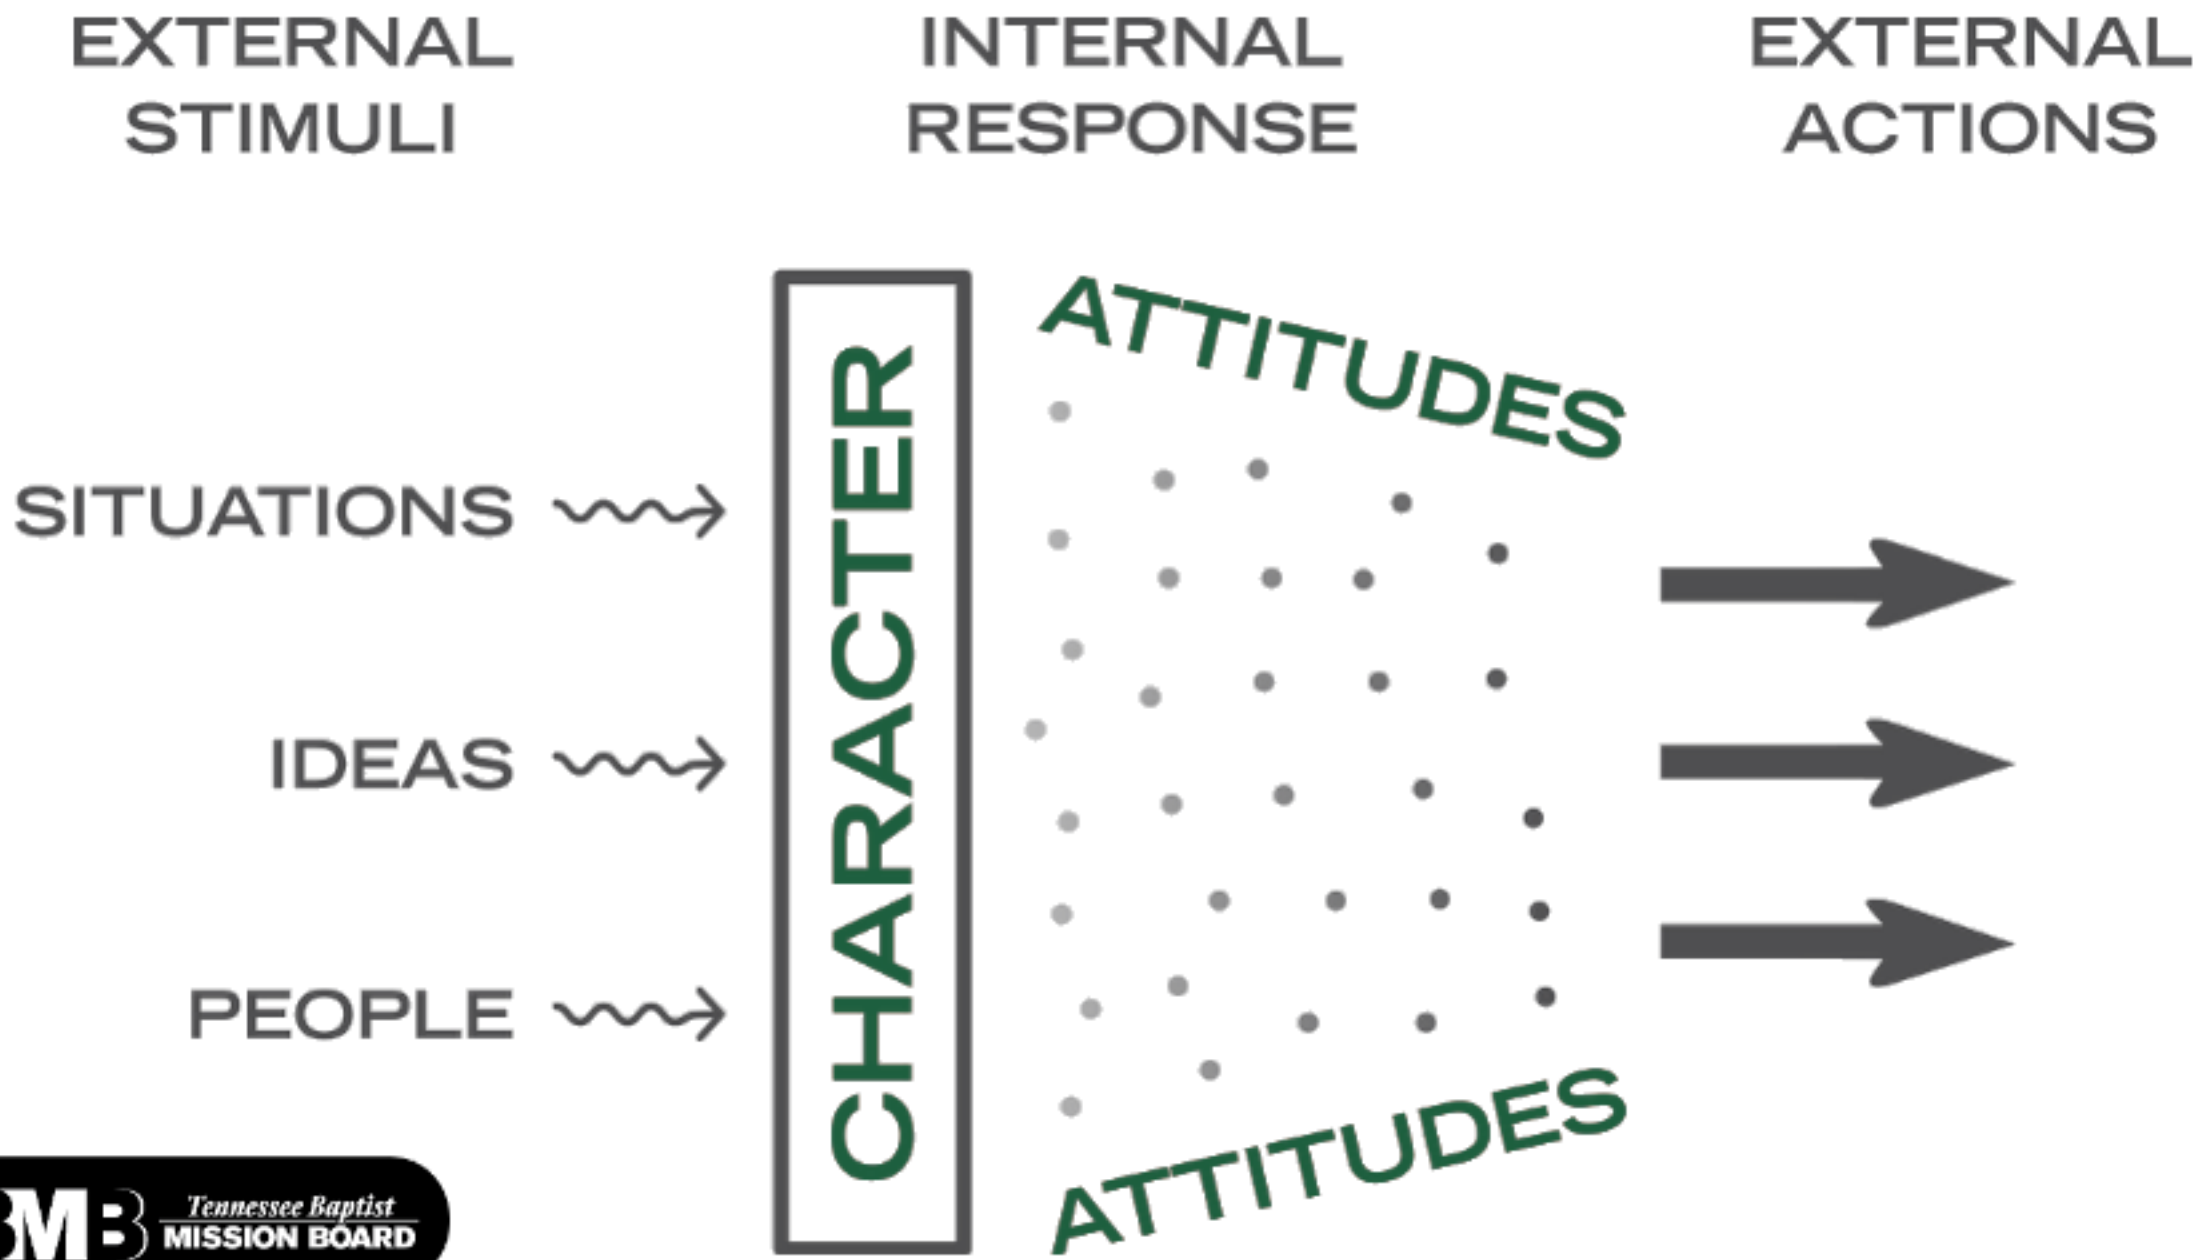
A Tale of Two Brothers

Your attributes determine your attitudes, and your attitudes drive your actions.



TBMB Tennessee Baptist MISSION BOARD

Your attitude, not your aptitude, will determine your altitude.

The attribute of integrity produces an attitude of trustworthiness.

The attribute of humility produces an attitude of servant-heartedness.

The attribute of love produces the attitude of empathy.

The attribute of courage produces the attitude of resilience.

The attribute of perseverance produces the attitude of diligence.

Having the mind of Christ is not only something we are called to adopt, it is something that the Holy Spirit enables us to receive and live out.

Having the mind of Christ means our thinking, values, and priorities are being reshaped by the Holy Spirit.
